who to

A tricked-out phone with multiple messaging options, it certainly has mass appeal. But who are the most likely customers? The Samsung Rant is great for the post-college crowd looking for a phone with a full QWERTY keyboard for high speed messaging. It has all the messaging options they want and then some. While texting they can listen to any music they loaded onto their phone. And when they're not, they can snap pics of their friends to upload to their online photo album.

easy to

Use the built-in QWERTY keyboard to send a text message

1. To access the Main Menu using the QWERTY keyboard, press the Enter key (located on the right). To send a message, use the up arrow key to highlight Messages and press the OK key.
2. Press 1 for Send Message, then press 1 for Text Message.
3. In the Create Text Message menu, enter the recipient's number and press the OK key.
4. Enter the body of the text message using the QWERTY keyboard and press the OK key for Send.

Take a picture or make a video

Pictures can be taken with the slide either open or closed.

1. In Standby mode, press the camera icon key on the lower right side of the phone.
2. The message "Loading," followed by a camera viewfinder screen appears in the display.
3. Press the Options softkey. Use the Navigation keys to scroll left to right to access the following options: Self-Timer, Multi Shot, Quality, Resolution, White Balance, Color Effects, and Settings. Highlight the desired option, use the up and down Navigation keys to select settings for each option, and press the OK key.
4. Once you have your desired picture in the viewfinder, press the OK key for Take; then you will have the option to Save, Send, or Erase the picture.

Add a tile on the carousel

1. Go to Personalize My Phone > Personalize Home Screen > Add (left softkey).
2. Then select from tile categories: All, Featured, Communication, Entertainment or Favorites. Select a tile from the dropdown list and choose ADD (left softkey) or PREVIEW (right softkey).
3. Then scroll through the carousel and select INSERT (left softkey) to place the tile where you want it.

   Note: You can have up to 15 tiles.
